

The Lodge of the Golden Fleece

Presents another first:

'The Spirit of Progress Blue Train'

All inclusive $160 per person

Saturday 10th May 2008

In keeping with our tradition of unique and interesting events, The Lodge of the Golden Fleece invites you and your friends to join us on Saturday 10th May at Southern Cross Station, Spencer Street to journey into history on the famous 'Spirit of Progress'.

The 'Spirit' will depart at 4.30pm from Southern Cross Station. Parking is available at Telstra Dome. Appetisers and drinks will be served on the train with dinner and Musical entertainment will be held at our destination in the refreshment rooms at historical Seymour Station. Our expected arrival time at Southern Cross will be approx. 11.00pm.

During the journey to Seymour, a short Lodge meeting will be held in the Trains Dining car, certainly a first for Freemasonry in Australia perhaps the world! More details to follow.

Cost $160 per person, deposit of $50 per person is required by March 14th.
